

6. The Principle of Freedom

Freedom is not the right to do what we want, but the power to do what we ought. Paul explained in Romans 6:16–22 that to be free from the Law of God is to be enslaved to sin, but to be servants of righteousness to God is to be free from the bondage of sin. The key to freedom is learning how to walk in the Spirit and appropriate the victory that Christ has already won through His death, burial, and resurrection.

The ultimate goal of God's Law is to bring us to ...

“Now the end of the commandment is charity out of a pure heart, and of a good conscience, and of faith unfeigned” (I Timothy 1:5).

DEVELOPMENT OF REPROBATION

“Wherefore God also gave them up to uncleanness through the lusts of their own hearts . . .” (Romans 1:24–32).
